GRACE METHODIST HONORS HER DEAD OF GREAT WAR

An event of more than ordinary interest took place on Sunday evening in Grace Methodist church.

More than a year ago the officers and teachers of the Sunday school under the superintendency of Mr. Jas. Madder began to discuss replacing the paper honor roll which was used to record the names of those connected with the Methodist church of this district who served in the Great War, with something of a more permanent nature, and at the same time it was suggested that a memorial to the six men who made the supreme sacrifice should be erected.

These suggestions were adopted; and the plan of Rev. N. Priestley was empowered to work out plans for this. These culminated in the placing upon the walls of the church of an artistic honor roll framed in mahogany, and a memorial tablet of white marble, which were unveiled with solemn ceremony on Sunday evening.

The special service which had been arranged, commenced about 8.30 p.m. and the sacred edifice was truly crowded to its capacity, a large number of late comers having to stand in the vestibules.

Mr. A. M. Allen, of Green-shields, formerly organist of Okotoks Union church played as an opening voluntary, Chopin's "Marche Funèbre," after which the whole congregation joined in the singing of the hymn "O God our help is ages past." This was followed by the reading of the Ninetieth Psalm by Rev. N. Priestley the pastor, and a brief address by Rev. H. Wilson of St. Thomas church.

Marked by Mayor, (Capt.) C. T. Lally, this gentleman performed the actual unveiling ceremony by releasing a large Union Jack, whose graceful folds falling away revealed the Honor Roll in its position upon the wall of the building. At this point, Mrs. H. Bagnall led the congregation in the singing of "O Canada."

The Rev. J. Davies, of St. Andrew's church, followed with a very appropriate short address, after which the solemn strains of "Finlandia" pealed forth from the organ at Mr. Allen's bidding.

Rev. N. F. Priestley, the pastor, then gave a short but earnest talk fully in keeping with such an auspicious event, and as a fitting climax to his address, the Mayor, by releasing another large flag disclosed to view the handsome marble tablet which shall commemorate for all time the worthy deeds of those whom it memorializes, the congregation at this period standing with bowed heads, the while the magnificent strains of Handel's "Dead March" from the Saul oratorio were most feelingly played by Mr. Allen; the final touch being the "Last Post" by Mr. Frank Stott.

The National Anthem sung in unison closed the proceedings, many of those present lingering for a closer view of the beautiful emblems.

The honor roll, which is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Laird in memory of their son Reginald, contains the names of thirty-five men. It was executed by Rev. T. F. Lund, a Methodist minister now in charge of South Calgary united church, and is a beautiful piece of work framed in a severe gothic style by Mr. Laird himself; the words "Roll of Honor" appearing in high relief effect at the top of the roll.

The tablet is of white marble, it being bolted to the wall by fancy bronze-headed fastenings. This was designed by Mr. Priestley who also carved the ornament effect and the inscription the plain work being executed by the Alberta Grant and Marble Co. of Edmonton. The inscription which is in raised letters on a roughened background reads as follows:

To Honor
The Memory Of
R. O. Laird M. E. Hedlund
H. G. Bardo S. J. Eaton
R. J. Smith G. S. Taylor who gave their lives in civilization

The Great War
Erected by Grace Methodist S.S.
At the foot of the tablet the words "Thy Son Liveth" appear on a ribbon ornament design.

WHEN THE EDITOR THINKS

The editor sits in his hard old chair And thinks with his thought machine There's my pen to polish my axe to grind—
My old typewriter to clean.
I must look to the garden patch Brought in from the garden patch I must look to the fellow who still —forgets.

His name on a check to scratch.
I must write a letter to Rev. Cox.
And tell him his sermons cold.
Will be brought to life with my printer's ink.
For fifty dollars in gold.
I must tell Tom Trott I will trade a year.
Of my paper for winter coal.
I must print as live news the wholesale price
Of a freshwater Baptist soul.
Oh life is sweet for the newsprint man

As he pounds at his old machine.
Though money is dirty and dirty and what they were years ago, and He keeps right tolerably clean.

AN INNOVATION FOR SUMMER VACATION TRAVEL

This is an age of advancement.
People insist on seeing something new and seeing it in a new way.
Things are done differently to what they were years ago, and with the idea of being up-to-date in every respect, the Canadian National Railways are affording the people of Western Canada an unusual opportunity of meeting these desires. To this end a special train is being operated, commencing at Winnipeg through to Prince Rupert, connecting with G. T. P. steamship for Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle, making stops at various points of interest en route, such as Little Lake Manitou, (Watrous), Saskatoon, Buffalo Park (Wainwright), (Jasper, Alta.), Prince George, the canneries in operation on the Skeena River, B. C. Prince Rupert Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle.
This train will leave Winnipeg at 11.30 P.M., Friday June 30th.

The lowest possible fare will be charged, viz: $130.00, which will include return transportation from other points; also sleeping car fare, meals and all entertainment on the going trip, so that passengers will only be required to pay for their meals and berth on the return trip. Choice of various routes may be had for the return trip.

An official of the Canadian National Railways will accompany the party throughout on the going trip to look after their comfort and pleasure, which will ensure an enjoyable time for all concerned. The number will be restricted, so as to ensure a maximum comfort.

Full information may be had from any Canadian National Railways Agent.

HONORED BY I.O.O.F.

Mr. R. A. Woods, who recently came from Wainwright to live in Edmonton, and who has been an active member in the I.O.O.F. lodge there, was presented by his fellow members with a handsome ring as a token of their esteem.
The presentation was made at a meeting of Friendship lodge, Edmonton, on Tuesday evening, by Mr. A. E. May, P. G. M., to whom the pleasing duty had been delegated by the Wainwright Rebekahs and subordinate lodge—Edmonton Journal.

The church, which has been newly cleaned and decorated gives an impression of simple dignity to which these artistic memorials greatly add.

It has been expressed by many that the ceremony of Sunday last was one not to be forgotten and when it becomes a dim memory in the minds of the younger members of the present congregation, these memorials will be there to remind them of the great men and the great events of the Great War.

CO-OPERATIVE SHIP- PING OF CATTLE

The Wainwright local of the U.F.A. have made arrangements to ship monthly cars of mixed livestock. The next shipment will be made on June 28th. Any farmer having horses, cattle or hogs to ship may get full information by phoning J. E. Hill, president.

CANADIAN NATIONAL GOVT. R.R. OPENS NEW BEAUTY SPOT

The Dominion Government of Canada, in 1909, set aside an area of 4,400 square miles in the heart of the Canadian Rockies, extending to the Western boundary of Alberta, to be known as Jasper National Park, and since that time distinguished travellers from all parts of the world, have given the opinion that it needed only increased accommodation for visitors to the Park, to place this wonderland of the north country in the foremost ranks of the great National playgrounds of America.

Jasper along the route of the Canadian National Railways, was selected as the administrative headquarters of Jasper National Park, and it is here that the Canadian National Railways have erected their picturesque bungal-ow camp, Jasper Park Lodge, which opened on June 15th.

The Lodge is a novel departure from the convention type of hotel and, in reality, a group of buildings, comprising a large dining hall, a spacious building for the lounge and several cottages, each containing an anteroom, four bedrooms and two baths, equipped with electric light and steam heat and hot and cold water in every room.

The bungalows are ideally situated on the shores of Lac Beaver and their location has been skillfully planned to command from each, splendid panoramic view of the surrounding peaks, including Pyramid mountain and Mt. Edith Cavell.

The simple type of cottage furniture has been used in the bedrooms and they are brightened by the gay colorings of the cotton draperies, while the huge open fireplace of boulders, is the dominant feature of the lounge. The pelts and fine specimens of game trophies which this room contains, are thoroughly in keeping with the furniture, which is rustic in pattern and material, and bright bits of native hand work, adorning the walls, serve as a reminder of earlier days, when the lofty peaks and azure lakes of Jasper National Park were known only to the Indians and a few in-tramp explorers' vicinity of the camp is marked by relics of former days.

Some distance beyond Park Lodge, on the shores of Lake Edith is located the Y. M. C. A. camp established by the Edmonton branch, and on the far shores at this lake may be seen the attractive cottages which form the nucleus of the artistic colony organized and founded by Miss Agnes Latt in 1920.

SALVATION ARMY WILL GIVE ALBERTA IMMIGRANTS NEEDED

As many first class, especially selected British immigrants every year as the province can absorb, if the Alberta government will take up a scheme of state aid in a financial way, was the proposition laid before Premier Greenfield and his cabinet last Friday by Commissioner D. C.
Lamb, international social secretary of the Salvation Army and Brigadier Thomas Tudge, of Montreal.

The immigrants will be from Great Britain and will be brought over under the auspices of the Salvation Army which will also maintain a follow-up interest in all the people thus settled here, weeding out any who prove to be misfits. The government on its part will be asked to advance a portion of the passage money for each immigrant, these advances to be in the nature of loans re-payable over a term of years.

WAINWRIGHT TOWN BAND TO CELEBRATE TOWN'S BIRTHDAY

Strong Programme of Athletic Events for Old and Young

BIG PRIZE MONEY
BEING HUNG UP
Baseball Tournament Promises
Big Feature; Junior Events Also

Dominion Day, July 1st, should prove a real stirring day for Wainwright.

As a means of fittingly celebrating the birthday of our town, and also incidentally recognizing the anniversary of confederation, the officers and members of the Town Band will be staging what promises to be the finest "annual" ever put over for this district.

The big feature, possibly, will be a baseball tournament which will start at 10 o'clock in the morning, and from that hour on ward there will be no lost time —but through a long programme of sports and athletic event, which should make the fans sit up and take notice.

The first and second prizes of $100 and $50 respectively will no doubt prove a big drawing card, several teams having already signified their intention of being in the "race for the dough," while junior baseball, basket ball, running, jumping, and a host of events for the juniors as well, all have a very attractive sum set up as "first money."

Of course, the band will be about 100 p.c. strong so that given fine weather the whole affair will prove to be Wainwright's Best!

The whole countryside is invited to come in to town on that date and spend an enjoyable time

FIRE PREVENTION SHOULD FORM BASIS OF STUDY

Years ago when the early settlers came to western Canada, mother used to place a lighted lamp in the window every night, when the family retired, as a guide to any stranger who might be lost on the trackless prairie. The doors were never locked. Fire guards were always well placed around the house and barn. No one thought of being caught out on the prairie without a pocket full of matches as it was sometimes necessary to set fire to the prairie grass and get into the burned area to keep from being caught by the fire which swept over the country at times. Even the cowboys when miles from any protection, and forced to face the outraging flames, learned to roll himself up in his old blanket, lie down upon the ground and let the fire sweep over him, when he would rise, throw off the burning blanket, and be safe. No one at that time had read much about fire protection. No fire inspector had ever called to tell them what they would have to do. No rules had been scattered broadcast. No fire extinguishers hung upon the walls of buildings and the law did not require an ornamental fire escape on the old school house, yet father, mother, and the entire family were better posted and gave more thought to fire guards and self protection than they do now. Grandsons of the old pioners are now members of the fire department and are sending their children to school in brick buildings with wooden stairways and no fire escapes. They are also running stores on Main Street with a lot of boxes, excelsior and crates piled up against the building at the back end. No oil lamps light up a window in their home at night, and the doors are securely fastened, but an electric light cord hangs over a nail or hook in numerous places waiting for a few more threads to show up, making a metal contact, when another fire will be reported, and the cause given as "unknown."

Our school kiddies have been having a short rest from their studies this week in preparation for the examinations next week

RETURNED MEN FOR GUARD OF HONOR

All returned men are requested to turn out to act as a guard of honor to His Excellency the Governor General on the occasion of his visit to Wainwright on September 16th. Uniform optional.
Will all who will be on hand for this event kindly notify the secretary of the local G.W.V.A. as early as possible.

THE EXAMINER'S WEEKLY REVIEW OF PROVINCIAL MARKETS

(Thursday, June 15, 1922)

CATTLE
Beef—Choice heavy steers at Edmonton, $7.00 to $7.50; choice light, $6.50 to $7.25; good $6.00 to $6.50; medium, $4.75 to $5.25; common, $3.50 to $4; thin steers hard to sell. Choice cows, $5.00 to $5.50; good, $4.50 to $5.00; medium, $3.50 to $4; common, $2.50 to $3; canners, $1.25 to $1.75. Good demand for choice heifers at $6.50 down. Good market for choice bulls; bulk around $3.50, but choice would make $4. Calves unchanged at $6.50 to $7.50 for tops; common, $1.60 to $2.50. Feeders and stockers—Demand only fair; prices weaker; feeders, $3.50 to $4.50; stockers, $2.50 to $3.50; stock heifers, $2.50 to $3.50; cows, $2 to $2.50.

SHEEP
Edmonton prices advanced and not many on hand; choice hams, $12.00 to $14; wethers, $10.00 to $11; ewes, $8 to $10.

GRAIN

Wheat prices have been dropping since last issue, and the exporters who were expected to get into the market when the prices went down a little are still holding off. Crop news so far in both Canada and the U.S. has been favorable, and the new wheat across the line is turning out well. Crops are approaching a critical time now, and so far as Alberta is concerned indications over a considerable proportion of the central area is not encouraging owing to the lack of moisture.
There is generally speaking no call for pessimism yet, but rain is needed at once for the grain crops.

PRODUCE

Butterfat—Prices in Edmonton unchanged at 30c 27c and 24c on three grades; unfavorable weather is reducing production.
Creamery Butter—Eastern buyers showing interest, as speculative proposition, owing to lighter manufacture; backward season reducing make in west—Cheese Firm eastern market due to export has stiffened prices. Poultry —Practically no receipts; storage stocks moving freely. Eggs—Market unchanged; receipts lighter; quality poor and eastern demand is easing off.

HAY
Buying prices at country points on upland $15 to $20; timothy, $20 to $27. Indications of poor crop over central portion of province.

Trade somewhat quiet; heavier skins are weaker, though prices not changed yet.

CROP COMPETITION WILL BE HELD IN UNION WITH FAIR

The Wainwright agricultural society is this year putting on a field crop competition, under the Department of Agriculture.

Five prizes will be awarded for the best ten acres of wheat, 1st $25; 2nd, $20; 3rd, $15; 4th, $10; 5th, $5, with the same for best ten acres of oats; the best ten acres of rye; and for the best one acre of potatoes.

These competitions were in vogue a few years ago and were very popular with competition, they were also a great boost to farming, and received many compliments from the government judges. As competitions are in the interests of better farming, all those who think their farming is in the top class should get full particulars and make entry with the secretary, Mr. S. L. Lythwaite.

Latest reports state that little Mastor Cornworth Rowe is now recovering splendidly from his recent attack of scarlet fever.

THE CLEAR LAKE BOYS' CAMP

Every Canadian boy is thrilled by the stories of early settlers who made their way through the trackless forests, blazing new trails and thus opening up the way for those who were to follow. It was through their hard and trying adventures, and their strong and persevering labors that the foundations were laid for the Canada we now possess. These rangers departed for their ves-ties upon their knowledge of law to find their way by the sun the stars or the blazed trees.
They understand the habits of the wild animals and the arts of camp craft and woodcraft.

We all want to be healthy and strong. Most of us are. Practically every one of us can be if we are willing to put a little effort into it. As boys we seldom want to do anything unless there is fun in it. Nature knowing how important it is for us to be healthy, has placed full of fun all the things which will help us to be well.

The purpose of the Clear Lake Boys' Camp is not only to give the boy a good time but to teach him how to enjoy a rich and full life. It is a training ground for our future Canadian Manhood.

THIRD CROP REPORT IS NOW ISSUED BY DOMINION GOV'T

Although warm weather during the latter half of May has dittion brought rapid growth to crops in general in Alberta, and the grain is showing a healthy condition in most sections, a note of anxiety has crept into reports from some localities with respect to moisture conditions. Need of rain is emphasized in several of the reports received by the agricultural department from its agents.
In the extreme southern area, rainfall has been fairly satisfactory, particularly in the southwestern section of the province, while farther north, in some of the more central areas, need of moisture has been apparent. In the northern areas also there are dry spots, but conditions generally are good. There has been soil drifting to some extent in several southern localities, and the cottonworms and grasshoppers are offering trouble in many sections.
There will be no extensive suffering from the lack of moisture, however, for another week or two. Seeding of grain crops is practically completed.

Grain is showing a fine, even growth in the Northern Areas and there is no suffering as yet from lack of moisture. The potato crop is practically all in the ground, with reduced acreage in some localities. Pasture lands are showing much improvement.

Grasshoppers—The campaign to combat the grasshopper pest is now well under way. Poison mixing stations are coming into operation. The farmers are actively co-operating in this work, and many districts are organizing large numbers over all the southern portion of the province.

SCHOOLS WILL HOLD JOINT ANNUAL PICNIC

The joint annual picnic of the scholars of House Lake, Holm-stead, Park Road and Ascot Schools will be held at Normandin's lake on June 21st at 10 o'clock.
This picnic promises to be as usual an outstanding day for the children, and the committee in charge guarantee a splendid time in water and athletic events.
In addition to these Mr. Normand-in will be giving every school child a free ride in his splendid gasoline launch. Everybody is welcome to join in, so pack up the hamper and be on hand early on June 21st.

By action of the recent Methodist conference, the appointment at Gilt Edge (at one time served from Wainwright) has been transferred to the Edmonton mission and will be attended on Alternate Sundays by Rev. J. A.
Smith of that town.

This week is "Scholl Week" at Robinson's, so if you suffer from any trouble of the feet drop in and have them seen to and the proper appliances adjusted.

U.F.A. SUNDAY WAS FITTINGLY OBSERVED AT ELITE THEATRE

On Sunday afternoon last the Wainwright local U. F. A. observed "U. F. A. Sunday" by divine service in the Elite theatre.
Mr. D. A. McDougall, director for the Wainwright-Greenfields area presided, and upon the platform with him were Mr. J. R.
Love, M.L.A., Rev. S. Davies of St. Andrew's and Rev. N. F.
Priestley of Grace Methodist.

Mr. Allen, of Greenfields, led the musical numbers on the piano, and the scripture reading was given by Mr. Priestley who also led in prayer.

Mr. Davies addressed the audience on the topic of the day, briefly drawing attention to the fact that the world is full of great movements—social, economical, political and religious—of which the U. F. A. is but a local manifestation. The speaker said he was convinced that it was the duty of the church not to organize or declare the nature of these movements but to provide them a spiritual dynamic, a moral content.

At the close of Mr. Davies' address, the solo "Nearer my God to Thee" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. E. L. Fuller, Miss M.
Limpert acting as accompanist.

The Rev. Priestley, in his address drew attention to the extraordinary character of the evening. It was extraordinary, he said, that a body organized primarily for social and educational development, but which had advanced into the economic and finally the politically fields, should feel the need of religious sanctions. He felt that it was a sign of a new day when men would realize that all life is sacred and belongs to God—the life of the factory, workshop, store and field, as well as that of the church.

Mr. J. R. Love pointed out that the world movements of which Mr. Davies had spoken were but an evidence of a universal desire to attain a larger life. In some of them there was danger because they gave no place to religion. To him the function of the church was the administration of the Unknown. Religion was a recognition of the, as yet, unattained, life which would be dreary if we knew all that lay ahead. The church would point the way to the ideal and men in all their social activities would follow.

The attendance was considerably larger than that of two years ago that occasion being the last of U. F. A. Sunday observed in this manner.

victorious over their opponents

BYE-ELECTION JULY 10th

Writs for the three bye-elections for the Provincial House to been issued, calling for nomina-elections one week later if necessary.

TREE PLANTING ON PRAIRIE FARMS

The officers in charge of the Dominion tree-planting work report increased interest in this subject in all parts of the Prairie Provinces. The experiences of the past few years have impressed on prairie farmers the great benefits of having belts of trees across their farms and about their farm buildings. The injury that has been done to many farms by soil drifting has led to the discussion of tree planting as a remedy at farmers' meetings and in the press. The planting inspectors note that the ground is being better prepared to receive plantations, and that the plantations are being better cared for than in the past.

Own Your Home

A campaign that is worthy of support, and one it is to be hoped will prove largely successful and be persisted in from year to year, is now in progress in quite a number of cities and is finding prominence in the news and advertising columns of the daily press. It is a campaign of publicity to educate people as to the wisdom of taking steps to acquire a home of their own instead of remaining "renters" all their lives.

While such a campaign can probably be carried on more spectacularly and effectively in the larger centres of population, it is one that might well be extended to towns, villages and hamlets, and what is of even greater importance, to the strictly rural communities.

Nothing is quite so well calculated to give stability to a nation as to have its citizens, to as great an extent as possible, the actual owners of the state and share public confidence in national institutions. The person with a fixed stake and interest in the country will give second thought before embarking on a rash enterprise, whereas people having no such interest in the country are more easily led astray by the professional trouble maker.

In the first place, such persons are far less likely to be influenced by demagogic appeals of agitators designed to undermine the stability of the state and shake public confidence in national institutions. The person with a fixed stake and interest in the country will give second thought before embarking on a rash enterprise, whereas people having no such interest in the country are more easily led astray by the professional trouble maker.

Ownership of a home constitutes a powerful factor leading to permanence of population. It is the man having no real interest in a community, as evidenced by lack of his own home, who is here today and gone tomorrow. It is the renters of the world who are forever on the move and who because of a lack of a stake in a given community will likely keep on moving and never attain anything.

People living in rented premises are paying the landlord's taxes, for him, a good rate of interest on his investment, thus yielding him a profit and in the long run actually paying for the property. The amount thus paid out annually in rental would in the course of years pay the purchase price and the present short-sighted renter have an asset to show for his money.

The family living in a rented house inevitably take less care of the property than would be the case if it was their own. They do not exert themselves to anything like the extent an owner would to improve and beautify the property, with the result that communities where renters predominate do not present the same prosperous, go-ahead appearance which marks a community of home owners. The incentive to steadily add to the value of the property is lacking; on the contrary, the opposite effect is too frequently noted because improvement of the property by the renter may easily result in a demand from the landlord for a higher rental.

What is true in the case of the renter of a city or town is equally true of the renter-farmer as contrasted with the farmer-owner. It is the renter who strives to get all he can out of the soil during the usually brief period of his sojourn on the land. He is not concerned about the future, with the result that the land and buildings deteriorate and the community, province and country suffer loss.

It is gratifying to learn, therefore, from statistics recently compiled that no other country in the world shows such a high proportion of home owners in the larger cities as does the Dominion of Canada, and in this respect the cities of Western Canada are ahead of those in the Eastern Provinces. It is probably true, too, although figures are not available, that in respect to ownership of land by farmers who are tilling the soil Canada occupies a higher place than other countries. The majority of farmers in Canada are owners, not renters, but there appears to be a tendency in this country—and to an even more alarming degree in the United States—for renters to increase in number. Great Britain has realized the mistake of having huge tracts of land owned by the few and the great majority of agriculturists reduced to tenants. Now the great English estates are being broken up, and many farmers are thus being enabled to secure land of their own.

Here in Canada the stability of the state, the securing of permanence of population, the improvement and permanent development of property, and the maintenance of a high standard of living all call for the giving of every possible encouragement to people to become the owners of homes of their own. Buying or building a home is good business for the individual as well as for the state. "Own Your Home" should be the ambition of every Canadian.

Lord Lee Gives His Opinion on Maintaining Navy

A number of prominent people have sent messages to the special June number of the Empire Mail. Lord Lee, First Lord of the Admiralty, has a message saying that in these days of financial panic and economy at any cost, it is well to remember the unchanging fact that the security of trade and commerce, the continuance of food supplies and the very existence of the empire are dependent on the maintenance of sea power and an adequate and efficient navy.

The Man Who Works Hard Should Follow This Advice

Perseverance and will power he should have, but whether he has strength and vigor is another question. Hard working men often have headaches and suffer from biliousness. The occasional use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills keeps a man feeling fit and fine, keeps him always at his best. Headaches, indigestion, poor color are quickly remedied by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Dr. Hamilton's Pills keep the system clean and pure, tone up the blood, drive away tiredness and lassitude. No medicine for a man is better than Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c all dealers or The Cattaraugus Co., Montreal.

LINGERING WEAKNESS FOLLOWING DISEASE

Due to the Fact that the Blood has Become Thin and Watery

In almost every case of the victims of the grippe, influenza, fever and contagious troubles, are left weak, ailing and nervous. The disease itself has disappeared. They do not pick up strength as they ought, and remain tired, nervous and discouraged. The only reason for this is that the blood has been impoverished by the action of the disease through which the victim has passed. Strength and full activity will not return until the blood has been restored to its normal condition. The blood can be enriched and purified quickly by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. To enrich the blood and strengthen the nerves is the whole mission of these pills, and for that reason they have been beneficial after disease has left them weak and run down. Among those who have profited by the value of these pills in cases of this kind is Mr. Charles A. Turner, light-keeper Thurston Cap light station, who says: "In Jan., 1917, I took a severe cold which I neglected until it developed into pneumonia, which confined me to bed for some weeks. When I was able to get up and sit around the house, I found that I was not retaining my usual strength; in fact I seemed to be growing weaker and was reduced almost to a skeleton. I took an emulsion, but it did not help me. Then one day a friend who came to see me said, 'Here's some Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, just the thing for you on your feet again.' I took them and then got six boxes more and soon could feel they were helping me. By the time the last box was empty I was doing my work again and feeling fine, and I had gained in weight. My health has since continued good, and I give the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

At the Railway Crossing

Trains Get You Going, Coming and Standing Still

Railroad crossings are places where automobile drivers turn around and visit with the people on the back seats. They frequently become good mixers by this process. Sometimes it is hard to distinguish one from another after the train has gone by. The driver is always easy to pick out. He is the one with his face turned away from the railroad track.

Many people are of the opinion that the highway crosses the railroad tracks. That is not so. The railroad track always crosses the highway. Some railroad tracks run low and straight. Their percentage of hits is higher than the single-track variety. It gets them three ways—going, coming and standing still.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JUNE 18

THE DOWNFALL OF JUDAH

Zedekiah was made king of Judah by the king of Babylon (24:17), but in spite of this kidnapping and the word of the Lord spoken to him by Jeremiah (Jer. 38:17, 18; cf. Jer. 62:3), he rebelled against the king of Babylon. He relied upon the help of Egypt, but all that Egypt could do was to cause temporary interruption of the siege of Jerusalem.

I. The Siege of Jerusalem (vv. 1-3).
1. Time of (vv. 1, 2). It began on the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign and lasted about eighteen months. The tenth month, according to the Jewish calendar, corresponds to our December-January, as their calendar year began about the middle of March. The reason the exact time is given is that this was to be an event of great importance to the Jews in their exile.

2. The Method (v. 1). Nebuchadnezzar came in person with a large army and encamped against Jerusalem and built forts against it round about. It is thought that siege walls were built around the city, shutting it in. On the tops of these walls forts were built from which missiles of destruction could be hurled by their engines of war against the city. With the siege of Jerusalem in 586 B.C. the kingdom of Judah came to an end.

3. The Famine (v. 3). It is estimated that one-third of the people of Jerusalem died of starvation.

II. Zedekiah's Flight and Fate (vv. 4-7).
1. "The City Was Broken Open" (v. 4). The Chaldeans had succeeded in making an opening in the wall so large that they could make their way into the city in spite of all that the Jews could do. Resistance was carried on to the bitter end.

2. Zedekiah's Flight (v. 4). The king, with his men of war fled by night toward the plain. His object, no doubt, was to cross the Jordan at Jericho and hide in the mountains east of Jordan.

3. Zedekiah's Fate (vv. 5-7). (1) He was overtaken in the plains of Jericho (v. 5). When his flight was discovered the Chaldean army pursued and captured him. (2) He was brought to the king of Babylon at Riblah (v. 6). Riblah was a town north of Damascus. It was the king's headquarters from which he directed his armies against Tyre and Jerusalem. Before Nebuchadnezzar, Zedekiah was tried as a criminal. (3) His fate (v. 7). His sons were slain in his sight; his eyes were put out; he was bound with fetters of brass; and they carried him to Babylon where he remained prisoner until the day of his death (Jer. 52:11).

III. Jerusalem Destroyed (vv. 8-10). The dismantling of the city was delayed a month, perhaps awaiting instructions from Nebuchadnezzar, who was at Riblah.

1. They Burnt the House of the Lord (v. 9). This was the sacred temple built by Solomon with additions and modifications. Before being destroyed they plundered it of all its sacred contents.

2. Burnt the King's House (v. 9). This was doubtless the palace built by Solomon.

3. Burnt all the Houses of Jerusalem (v. 9). The implication is that the common houses were left for the people (v. 12).

4. They Broke Down the Walls of Jerusalem (v. 10). The aim was to render the walls useless as a means of defense.

IV. The Disposition of the People (vv. 11, 12).
1. Carried Them Into Captivity (v. 11). The people who were left in the city and those who had deserted to the Babylonians were carried to Babylon; all such as would be left in Babylon.

2. The Poorest of the Land Were Left (v. 12). The people who would not likely make any trouble were left as vine-dressers and husbandmen. Doubtless they were looking forward to colonization by foreign peoples. The object in leaving these people was that the country might be ready for their coming. Over these people Gedaliah was appointed as governor, with headquarters at Mizpah.

Wheat Shipped from Southern Alberta . . . Although the year 1921 was unusual for dry farming operations, and the irrigation enterprises of southern Alberta are as yet in their early stages, figures recently compiled show 6,420,000 bushels of wheat shipped out of the Lethbridge division of the C.P.R., which includes the southern Alberta territory from Okotoks south to the boundary and east to the vicinity of Medicine Hat, since last harvest.

"Without Fear of Contradiction" . . . The editor of the Saturday afternoon edition of the Wainwright Herald and Wainwright News put on his hat and coat, he remarked: "Well, I won't say I won't plant grass this evening, but I will say that up to now I didn't intend to."—Great Lead Tribune.

Aviator Establishes Endurance Record

Flies from London to Paris Twice in One Day

Captain E. D. G. Horne, who is flying one of the new D.H.34 "ex-presses" on the London-Paris airmail, succeeded in establishing a new endurance record in commercial aviation. Leaving the London air station at Croydon for Paris at 6:35 a.m., Captain Horne flew to Paris in 122 minutes. After half an hour's rest he flew back to Croydon, arriving there at 11:54. Snatching a hasty luncheon, he was in the air again—still in the same machine—at 12:45 p.m., and landed at Paris at 2:28 p.m. Spending only 22 minutes on the ground at Paris, he returned to Croydon at 5:49 p.m.

Within 11 hours Captain Horne piloted the same aeroplane 1,000 miles, his "flying time" being 8 hours 52 minutes. It is the first time that one pilot has flown to Paris and back twice in the same day.

The previous best performance was that of Captain Shepperson, who, on the day of the French Grand Prix in 1920, flew from London to Paris in the morning, back to London again after luncheon, and then back to Paris once more before dusk.

American Swiss Cheese

Has Been Introduced Successfully Into Markets of Switzerland

The last three years have witnessed the invasion of the home of the world's most famous cheese—Switzerland—by the product of American cheese manufacturers, and the Swiss cheese has had to make room for its foreign relation, according to Compt. Murphy, at Lucerne. The constant improvement of American types of Swiss cheese has had much to do with their introduction into Swiss and other new markets.

Swiss cheese is not made exclusively in large manufacturing establishments, but throughout scores of small villages, and the uniformity of the various varieties is not obtained by any process of manufacturing, but is attributed to a peculiarity in the fodder eaten by the cattle in the various districts.

Newspaper With a History

Scottish Journal Celebrates 125th Anniversary of Existence

An interesting newspaper anniversary that passed with little public notice was that of the Kelso Mail which recently completed its 125th year of publication, the first printer publisher and editor of the Kelso Mail was James Ballantyne, founder of the Ballantyne Press, Edinburgh, and the paper was started on the advice and with the assistance of Sir Walter Scott. The noted poet and novelist was a schoolfellow of Ballantyne at the Kelso Grammar School.

The first of Sir Walter Scott's works, including the first two volumes of the "Minstrelsy of the Scottish Border," were printed in the office of the Kelso Mail. For many years this was the only newspaper published between the Tyne and the North. Kelso is in Roxburghshire, Scotland.

WAINWRIGHT, ALBERTA, JUNE 21st, 1922.

IS MANKIND SUPERSTITIOUS?

The question, "Are you superstitious?" is pretty universal, and is responsible for much controversy at times. Few people care to walk underneath a ladder in their daily perambulations. If a business or other misfortune happens, many good folk console themselves that these never come singly and are doled out in questionable packages of three. Many people are averse to have their furniture moved on certain days of the week, the adage running in Ireland that "a Saturday fit is a short sit." The list proving that superstition does exist is a formidable one. Superstition generally has recently been engaging more than ordinary attention from psychologists, who have been holding examinations amongst educated people to discover how many of them are superstitious. The result is informative to those simple folk who believe that all vain delusions may be banished from the human mind. The results of recent enquiries lead to the conclusion that after education has done its part the world still remains much the same as the Apostles found the Athenians, "in all things too superstitious." Many people have their doubts about number 13; others have a dread of breaking a mirror, and in most all society we think there is a genuine respect for dreams.

But modern psychologists will scarce consider this last faith superstitious. Science has rehabilitated the dream, and those who undertake to minister to the mind diseased do not disdain the methods of Joseph and Daniel. Why does a man touch wood? Not from any faith in the magical virtue of that substance, but to remind himself that he has been too boastful or too sanguine. The reluctance to feel too confident is not a superstitious fear, but the wise expression of the principle, "Let him who thinketh he standeth take heed lest he falls." Why do our educated friends who are above superstitious doctrines fear to be 13 at a table? It is not an answer to point to the number as those who met at the Last Supper, nor is the matter simplified by those who seek examples in folk lore older than the oldest forms of Christianity of the ill-fortune of 13. Folk lore may assure us that it is unlikely to spill salt, because salt is the symbol of friendship, or that our modern objection to marrying is at least as old as Ovid. But to trace a superstition into the past or to prove that it is founded on symbolism does not explain it.

A certain English philosopher declared that many a popular faith is based on nothing but the perennial weakness of the human mind. "Men mark when they hit, but not when they miss." Yet this also is inadequate. For superstition is found not only in the mass of men, but in the sages. Everyone knows how to robust scepticism of John-son was mingled with faith in ghosts and second sight—these perhaps are not superstitions nowadays—and in touching the posts at street corners. Aristotle, most ready-going of philosophers, propounded the problems: "Why sneezing from noon to midnight was good but from night to morn was unlucky." Neither education nor powers of mind deliver us from such faith. It is in nature to believe in something we do not understand, and though we drive out nature with the pitchfork of reason, as knowledge back she comes to assert her sovereignty.

"Alas! you know the cause too well The salt is split, to me it fell; Then to contribute to my loss My knife and fork were laid across.
On Friday, too! the day I dread, Would I were safe at home in bed;
Last night (I vow to Heaven 'tis true) Bounce from the fire a coffin flew—e post some fatal news shall tell, God send my Cornish friends be well."

Thus did Gay sing—and Goethe said that "Superstition is the poetry of life. It is inherent in man's nature and when we thing it is wholly eradicated it takes refuge in the strangest holes and corners, whence it peeps out all at once as sudden as it can do so with safety." Southey remarked that:

" 'Tis a history
Handed from ages down—nurse's tale—Which children open-eyed and mouth'd devour; And thus as garrulous ignorance relates We learn to and believe."

CORD TIRES FABRIC

"There's something in the Quality of Dunlop Tires that's missing from other tires. Don't know what it is, but when I make that quick stop I know instantly I have Dunlop Tires on!"

"One motorist thus spoke for himself. He really was speaking for thousands of car owners."

"Live Rubber and Best Egyptian Cotton go into Dunlop Cords and Fabrics. No shoddy, no skimping. The day of the short-mileage tire is gone; the day of the high-mileage tire is here; and when "tire-mileage" is up for discussion now, you find the word "remarkable" generally precedes a reference to DUNLOP."

It surely seems had enough that so many of our townspeople disregard the herd bylaw in town by just turning their cows loose haphazard, but when they hang a bell on the animal, leaving it to wander at will to the discomfort and sleepless-night of neighbors it adds insult to injury. There is a likelihood that somebody's bell (if not somebody's cow) will be missing one of these days—and the owners will have no one to blame but themselves!

Mr. J. Bruce, of Medicine Hat, the provincial fire inspector was in town yesterday checking up the state of the town in general and the fire hazards in particular. He expressed himself as pleased at the tidy appearance of Wainwright.
